PUBLIC PARTICIPATION:

Supervisor Plant stated that there will be three (3) public hearings with the opportunity to speak regarding the hearings.

A Sherburne Road resident stated he would like to be updated regarding issues that have been reported in our local newspaper. He went on to say that he also read our Town Clerk, Susie Jacobs had earned her Certified Municipal Clerk title and he for one would like to say “that’s great Sue”.

He express he is not exactly sure what the proposal (article in our local newspaper) is dealing with in eliminating the position of the Receiver of Taxes but he would like to know a bit more regarding where it stands and if this is going to be looked into by the Town Board and if the board would address it at this time? Supervisor Plant stated the resident should call the next morning and he would give him all the information stating the Town Board needs to look at it. The resident asked if it is favorable, Supervisor Plant responded that it can’t be done this year.

Again, he congratulated Susie Jacobs, Town Clerk on her achievement.
